

Comments:

This type of internships are very useful to gain
Exposure, remove any fears in entering advocacy and court proceedings related Basic information

How did your internship experience help you grow personally and / or professionally?

internships are a great way to gain real life
Experience, develop practical knowledge

What previous classes or classroom experiences were most useful in preparing you for internship? What educational experiences do you wish you would have had prior to completing your internship?

During my internship I learned how to communicate and build a legal relationship with the clients
I worked & communicated with.

What advice would you give to future interns? (May we use this in promoting internships to other students Yes / No)

It is important to ask as many questions as you can to the people you work with and take feedback on how you are working from your Supervisor.

Would you consider doing an internship again? Why or why not?

Yes, given chance and time I will definitely consider doing internship again to get more legal profession insights and practical Exposure

In-charge Faculty Signature

How could the internship program and / or assignments be improved to better meet future intern's needs?

By making this internship program more robust and practical, try giving contacts of organisations and law firms who are ready to train interns properly instead of assigning them data entry work.

Experience:

I have been enriched by this internship time. though its short 21 days but it created lot of confidence in me in handling legal matters.

Any other Comments:

Instead of doing the internship again and again I want to do internship of my next under different fields.

Date:

M. Raudrebeu.
Name & Signature of Student

In-charge Faculty Signature

Index	Page No
1. Introduction to Internship	2
2. 21 days - Day wise Observation Report	5
3. Final report & My Experience	26

1. importance of internships in legal education.

Internships are an indispensable component of present legal education, serving as a critical conduit between the abstract legal principles learned in academic settings and dynamic, often complex, realities of legal practice. While law college curricula provides a robust theoretical foundation, internships offer the invaluable opportunities to witness and engage with law in action.

This experimental learning is fundamental to transform students into competent and well rounded legal professionals ready to meet demands of law field outside colleges. By working alongside seasoned legal practitioners, whether in law firms, government agencies, corporate legal departments, or with individual advocates, students gain firsthand exposure to day-to-day operations in legal world, an experience textbooks alone cannot replicate on their own.

The transition from structured environment of academia to often unpredictable nature of professional legal work can be challenging, internships facilitate a smoother transition by acclimatizing students to professional workspace, culture and its expectations. This early exposure not only demystifies profession of law but also allows students to cultivate essential professional etiquette and understand the practical credence of legal tasks at large in practical legal field.

9, objectives of 21-day internship.

This 21 day internship was undertaken with a clear set of objectives designed to maximize learning potential of this immersive experience. The overarching goal was to gain a profound and practical understanding of legal profession in action.

Specific objective include.

- (a) Understanding legal process and operations
- (b) Enhancing legal research capabilities
- (c) Developing legal drafting skills
- (d) Observing and learning client interaction techniques
- (e) Gaining courtroom and procedural exposure
- f, Bridging Theory and practice in Substantive law.
- g, Cultivating professionalism and ethical conduct.
- h, Exploring specific areas of law.

3. internship provides details.

4. My Expectations and learning goals.

My primary Expectation upon commencing this internship was to significantly bridge the gap between theoretical legal knowledge acquired through academic study in real world legal settings which are dynamic and practical

- (a) Mastering procedural Nuances
- (b) Elevating research and analytical acumen
- (c) Gaining Competence in legal drafting
- (d) Understanding Client Management and Communication
- (e) Developing Core professional attributes
- (f) Building confidence and professional identity.

Day 1

Introduction to advocates office Setup & Daily operations.

1, work observed & legal documents handled.

* I have observed layout and overall organizational setup of my advocate, observed reception area, workspaces of other advocates who are working along with him.

* Observed case file management, including how case files are stored and all the digital systems used for record keeping

* While no specific documents are assigned to me on my first day, I was shown typical components of case file.

2, Interactions and Guidance Received.

* Upon arrival to office on first day, I was formally introduced to all the advocates in the office and receptionist of the law office. They have given me overview of this internship program and their expectations from me as intern.

* I received an explanation of office protocols, including working hours, dress code, rules regarding confidentiality, and expected professional conduct during internship.

3) Reflections and learning outcomes.

* The first day provided a valuable insight into structured and professional environment of a functioning advocates office. I learned that organization and systematic process are key to managing a legal practice efficiently.

* I understood importance of initial briefing on office protocols and advocates expectations from me as an intern.

Day 2 -

Understanding case files and Documentation.

1, Work Observed & legal Documents Handled.

- * Observed Systematic Organisation of Case files within my advocates Office. This includes understanding how each legal file is categorised, potentially by area of law (Civil, Criminal), Client Name and other details of the particular case.
- * I was provided with a few selected files (mostly already judgement served, and less sensitive ongoing matters to familiarise myself with their contents and structure.

(2) Interactions and Guidance Received.

- * My advocate assigned provided initial guidance on how to approach the study of a case file. and received instructions on what key elements to look for when first reviewing a file, such as identifying parties involved, main legal issues, Relief sought, and current stage of proceedings.
- * Learned about common legal abbreviations and terminology frequently used in case papers and court documents.

3, Reflections and Learning Outcomes.

- * Gained Tangible understanding of sheer volume of paperwork and meticulous record keeping involved in legal practice.
- * A single case can generate numerous documents. Recognised that a case file is essentially the narrative of legal dispute, Chronologically documenting every step from inception of case.
- * It became evident that understanding purpose and content of various documents is a foundation skill for aspiring lawyer.

Day 3.

Drafting: Notices, legal Applications

1, works observed and legal documents handled

- * Observed advocate and his junior associates discussing strategy and key points for drafting a legal Notice.
- * Witnessed the process of gathering necessary factual information from clients file to incorporate into draft.
- * Saw how a junior advocate began drafting a simple interlocutory application for adjournment, referring to templates and civil procedure Code.

2, interaction and Guidance received

- * I was provided with a template of a legal Notice to study its components - Sender details, factual background, legal Basis of Claim.
- * And Received guidance on fundamental principles of drafting, my advocate emphasized on Clarity, consistency, and accuracy.
- * Learned that pleadings form backbone of a case & establish case.

3, Reflections and learning outcomes

- * I Understood that legal drafting is a meticulous process that requires careful attention to detail and a strong command over legal language we use in legal documents.
- * I Recognized that even seemingly simple documents like Notices have significant legal implications.
- * Learned that effective drafting clearly communicate the Clients position and legal basis for their claims.

Day 4

Client Counselling and Interview Techniques

1. Works observed and legal documents handled.

* Observed my assigned advocate conducting an initial consultation with a new client who had a Matrimonial dispute.

* Witnessed the advocate's approach to making the client feel comfortable and encouraging them to share their story.

* Noted types of questions asked by advocate.

* While today I am not directly handling any documents during the counselling session, I saw advocate refer to any preliminary documents that clients had brought today.

2. Interactions and Guidance Received

* My advocate assigned later discussed the importance of building trust and rapport with client from very first interaction.

* Received guidance on key stages of client interview: that are

(a) Establishing a connection.

(b) Gathering facts.

(c) Understanding client's goals.

(d) Explaining legal position.

3. Reflections and Learning Outcomes

* I realised client counselling is a critical skill that goes beyond just legal knowledge: it involves interpersonal and very good communication abilities.

* Understood that initial client interview is crucial for gathering all relevant facts, which forms the basis for subsequent legal action and explaining the legal position and explaining the client was forward in his case.

Day 5

Basics of Civil and Criminal procedures

- 1, Works observed and legal documents handled
 - * Observed discussions among advocates in my internship office regarding procedural stage of various on going civil and criminal cases. That day advocate is preparing for evidence in civil suite
 - * Saw how case files were organised to reflect procedural progression of a case.
 - * I Briefly reviewed a plaint and a written statement in civil case.

2, Interaction and Guidance Received

- * My guide provided a high level overview of a lifecycle of a typical civil suite from filing to execution.
 - * One of the junior advocate explained that day about significance of limitation period for filing of suits and appeals.
 - * Discussed importance of adhering to procedural timelines and consequences of Non-Compliance
- ### 3, Reflections and learning outcomes

- * Gained a better appreciation for structured, step-by-step nature of legal proceedings governed by procedural codes.
- * Understood that procedural laws are the framework within which substantive rights are adjudicated.
- * Began to see how different documents like plaint, FIR, applications correspond to specific stages in legal cases.

Role of Helping Staff in law office and filing procedure

1) works observed and legal documents handled

- * Closely observed daily tasks performed by advocate clerk and legal assistants. This includes incoming and outgoing communication in the form of phone calls, mails and organizing the case files, updating the case diary.
- * I handled and helped organize various documents within case files under clerk's supervision such as pleadings, applications.
- * looked at court fee challans, stamps to understand how they calculated.

2) interactions and guidance received

- * my advocate clerk explained me typical procedure for filing new cases and miscellaneous documents in local courts.
- * Received guidance on importance of meticulous organisation of files, as it directly impacts advocacy ability to prepare for hearings.
- * understood the importance of keeping track of defect notification from registry and ensuring timely rectification.

3) Reflections and learning outcomes

- * Today I gained immense respect for critical support role played by legal assistants and clerks in a law office.
- * Understood that efficient filing and record management are fundamental to smooth functioning of a legal practice.
- * I learned that navigating court administrative procedures require practical knowledge and offer so much patience.

Day 7

Drafting of Written Statements / and Counter Affidavits

1, works observed and legal documents handled

- * Today I observed Junior advocate analysing a plaint received from the opposing party in a civil suit to prepare a written statement
- * witnessed the process of going through the clients version of facts and supporting documents to formulate specific denials
- * I was given a copy of plaint and draft of written statement in a specific case to compare and understand how each averment is respond to in a particular case.

2, Interactions and Guidance Received

- * Today my advocate explained Strategic importance of a well drafted written statement in a defining the scope of dispute.
- * Received guidance on the rules of pleading, particularly the need for specific, non-evasive denials
- * learned about possibility of including a Set-off or counterclaim in a written statement if the defendant has a claim.

3, Reflections and Learning Outcomes

- * I understood that written statement is a defendant's primary opportunity to present their case and rebut the plaintiff claims.
- * appreciated the meticulous, point-wise approach required to ensure no allegation in the plaint goes unanswered.
- * Recognised the legal and factual precision required in drafting these written statement responsive pleadings.

Day 8

Legal Research and use of Bare acts Search

- Works observed and legal documents handled
- * Today, observed a junior advocate initiating research on legal case concerning a point of contract interpretation, applicability of Sections of BNS.
- * Witnessed that advocate first referring to relevant Bare Act. to understand the primary statutory provisions.
- * I handled printed copies of Bare act of BNS, learned to navigate different sections and understood the structure of Act.

2, Interactions and Guidance Received

- * my guide emphasized me that legal research must always begin with relevant statute or Bare act as primary source of law.
- * Specifically received guidance on formulating effective search queries for online databases, using Boolean operators like (and, or, not) commands or specific search fields like Judge Name and Year of Judgements.

3, Reflections and Learning outcomes

- * I understood that thorough legal research is the foundation of strong legal arguments and effective case preparation.
- * appreciated the efficiency and breadth of online legal research tools compared to traditional manual methods.
- * Saw the importance of being systematic in research: keeping track of sources, relevant paragraphs and logical counter-arguments.

Day 9

Studying previous judgements and Case law citations

1. works observed and legal documents handled
 - * Today when I entered the office, my internship Supervisor meticulously reading and analyzing judgements relevant to ongoing cases.
 - * Witnessed discussions on how a particular precedent, a previously decided case could be applied to facts of current case.
 - * Noted how advocates looked for judgements that were factually similar or dealt with analogous legal questions.
 - * Saw how citations were carefully noted & verified.
2. Guidance Received and interaction had
 - * Today I was given a few significant judgements related to a specific area of law practised by firm like some civil/criminal cases.
 - * Reviewed structure of typical judgement, case title, Bench composition, Name of Counsel, facts of case.
 - * Practiced identifying different parts of case citation
 - * Looked at how judgements themselves refer to and discuss.
3. Reflections and learning outcome
 - My internship supervisor explained the doctrine of precedent, and how judgements of higher courts on lower courts binding.
 - Received guidance on how to brief a case - summarizing the key facts, issues, arguments, Reasoning and definitions in past.
 - Gained deeper understanding of how case law evolves and how judicial pronouncements shape the interpretation and application of statute in particular case.

Day 10

Legal opinion writing and Briefing Senior Council

1. works observed and legal documents handled
 - today I observed a junior advocate in my law office preparing a preliminary draft of legal opinion for a client who sought advice on legality of a his proposed business action.
 - witnessed the process of identifying specific legal questions raised by client in this client meeting.
 - also observed preparations for briefing a Senior Council for an important upcoming high court matter in Telangana High Court.
2. interaction and Guidance Received
 - my internship supervisor explained that legal opinion is should be clear, well-reasoned, and based on a thorough analysis of applicable law and facts provided. It should ~~clearly~~ clearly state any assumptions made & limitations of advice.
 - Regarding Briefing Senior Council, a Junior advocate shared insights on anticipating the Senior Council questions.
3. Reflections and Learning Outcome
 - Today I understood that writing a legal opinion is a significant responsibility, as clients rely on this advice to make important decisions.
 - Recognised analytical rigor required to dissect a factual scenario, apply relevant law, and provide a reasoned conclusion.
 - Saw the collaborative nature of legal practice, where advocates of Junior Council prepare groundwork for Senior Council.

Day 11

Observing Drafting of agreements and legal Notices

1. Works observed and legal documents handled

- Today I observed Junior associate drafting a lease agreement, an addendum to an existing contract, or a more additional clauses to the already existing lease agreement for land owner.
- I observed how standard clauses like parties, Term, payment, dispute resolution, termination were incorporated in a document.
- I was provided with Non-Disclosure agreement template to study its common clauses and structure.

2. Interaction and Guidance Received

- In the interaction with my internship supervisor he explained that goal of drafting an agreement is to clearly define the rights and obligations of all parties to anticipate potential future issues.
- A junior associate shared some tips on using precise language and avoiding jargon where possible, or defining key terms within agreement itself.

3. Reflections and Learning Outcome

- Gained further appreciation for meticulous nature of transactional drafting, A single poorly worded clause can lead to significant disputes.
- Recognized the proactive aspect of agreement drafting - Trying to foresee and address potential problems before they arise.
- Saw how legal notices serve as formal communications that can establish a party's legal position.
- Learned that while templates are useful starting points, each agreement or notice must be customized to specific facts.

Day 12

Study of petition filling process

1. works observed and legal documents handled
 - * I observed my law office preparing for filling of bail application in a Sessions Court
 - * Witnessed the compilation of necessary documents to be annexed with the petition, such as copies of FIR, arrest memo, Relevant orders, or government orders / Communications being challenged
 - * Notes Preparation of supporting affidavits, Vakathname, Court fee.
2. Interaction and Guidance Received
 - * My guide Explained the Constitutional and Statutory basis for different types of petitions.
 - * Received guidance on specific procedural requirements for filing in relevant court, no. of copies, use of legal paper
 - * Discussed the concept of 'Locus Standi' (Right to sue)
3. Reflections and Learning Outcomes
 - * Understood the filling specialized petitions like bail applications and writs involves distinct procedures and drafting styles.
 - * Appreciated the Urgency often associated with such petitions, Especially those concerning personal liberty and fundamental rights.
 - * Learned that drafting these petitions requires a clear articulation of how the law applies to the specific facts.

Review of Execution petitions and legal Correspondence

works observed and legal documents handled

- * I observed advocates in my law office reviewing the status of case where a decree (final court order) had been passed in favour of our client, but opposing party not complied with it. Witnessed the initial steps and discussion around drafting an execution petition to enforce the decree.
- Reviewed a copy of Court decree to understand the operative part that orders a specific relief to client.
- Interactions and Guidance Received

- * my advocate explained that obtaining a decree is only half the battle, ensuring its execution is equally important.

Received guidance on different modes of executing a decree as provided Civil procedure code.

- * learned that legal letters should be precise, unambiguous, avoid making any admissions.

Reflections and Learning outcomes

- * Understood that legal process does not necessarily end with a judgement, enforcement mechanisms like execution petitions.

Recognized that drafting an execution petition requires a clear understanding of a original decree and procedural options available for its enforcement.

learned that even routine correspondence needs to be handled with care and professionalism as it can become part of case record.

Day 14

Summary of office workflow - Role of junior lawyers

1. Works observed and legal documents handled

- Since this is my 14 days after starting the internship so I took a step back to observe all the other overall flow of work within the advocate's office throughout the day till end of day wrapups.
- Noted how new case inquiries were handled, how existing case files were accessed and updated for daily hearings or tasks.
- Reviewed internal office documents like daily case lists, internal checklists for file preparation, templates used for communication.

2. Interactions and Guidance Received

- Today I had few informal discussions with junior advocates about their typical day, the range of tasks they handle, how they daily wise, case-wise workload management.
- The advocates clerk shared insights into systems they use for tracking case progress and managing office everyday logistics.

3. Reflections and Learning Outcomes

- Gained a holistic understanding of how a law office functions as an integral system, with each role contributing to service.
- Appropriated structured approach required to manage multiple cases and client needs simultaneously.
- Recognised significant responsibilities and learning opportunities available to junior advocates, who often handle many legal tasks.
- Understood that effective delegation, clear communication channels and well defined process are key to successful legal practice.

Day 15

Ethics and professionalism in law office.

1. Works observed and legal documents handled
 - Through the Internship, and particularly with a ~~lot~~ Reflective lens today, I observed how advocates in my law office and other staff in office adhered to professional ethics in their dealings with clients, opposing counsel, and court staff.
 - Noted instances of maintaining client confidentiality - discussions about cases being held privately, files stored securely.
 - Observed how conflicts of interests were handled.
2. Interaction and Guidance Received
 - My Internship incharge have explicitly discussed the importance of ethical conduct, honesty, and integrity as cornerstone of everyday legal professional dealings.
 - Discussed advocate's duty to court, which sometimes might even take precedence over the clients immediate wishes if those wishes involve misleading court or abusing the legal process.
3. Reflections and Learning outcomes
 - Today I consolidated the legal ethics are not just abstract rules but are integral to the daily practice of law and upholding the dignity of profession.
 - Recognised that professionalism encompasses not only legal knowledge and skills but also behavior, attitude.
 - Understood the delicate balance an advocate must maintain between their duty to client, duty to court, duty to opposing counsel, and duty to society at large.

Observing Client meetings and legal Consultations

Works observed and legal documents handled

- Today I got another chance to sit in two more client consultations, perhaps about our inoffice ongoing cases.
- I Focused on observing aspects potentially missed earlier and observing a different advocates client meeting and understood different advocates have differently conducting these consultations with client.
- During this meetings observed my advocate retrieved specific documents from client file like recent court order.

Interaction and Guidance Received

- After each meeting I have discussed with my Supervisor about the specific strategies used during the consultation.
- Received further guidance on how to explain complex legal jargon and procedures in simple terms that a layperson client can understand in very easy language.
- learned about importance of being prepared for client meetings

Reflections and learning outcomes

- Further appreciated that effective client communication is a core competency for lawyers, vital for building trust and maintaining a strong advocate-client relationship.
- Recognized that each client is different, and advocate need to adopt their communication style to suit the individual client personality and level of understanding.
- Understood the importance of active listening and empathy in making clients feel valued and heard.

Understanding legal Billing and fee structure

1, Works observed and legal documents handled

- Today I observed and discussed with me about how fees legal are structured for different types of Cases and legal services.
- Witnessed the preparation of fee estimate and a bill for client, noted different components of bill like professional fees, out of pocket expenses, court fees like that.
- Noted how client retainers are managed and accounted for these fees for client services and case type.

2, Interactions and Guidance Received

- my internship supervisor have explained different fee structures common in legal practice in India, such as fixed fee for specific task, Per-appearance fees for court or hourly rates.
- Received guidance on ethical considerations in fee arrangements, emphasizing transparency and fairness to client.
- Discussed Bar Council rules regarding advocates fees.

3, Reflections and learning outcome

- Today gained an understanding that while law is a profession, a legal practice is also a service that needs to be manage its finances effectively.
- Recognized the importance of transparency and clear communication with clients regarding legal costs from outset.
- Appreciate that fee structure can vary significantly based on Nature and Complexity of legal work, Experience of advocate.

22

Day 18

Study of legal Drafting for Commercial Agreements

1, Work observed and legal documents handled

- Today I was focused on drafting a agreement with a Commercial flavour that is partnership deeds and Supplier agreements.
- observed the process of understanding the business Objectives of Clients involved in Commercial transaction.
- Studied the templates and actual drafts of Various Commercial agreements to understand their Structure and Common Clauses.

2, Interaction and Guidance Received

- Today in law office the advocate who is have Experience in Commercial law explained me the importance of aligning the legal agreement with business deal struck by the clients.
- Received guidance on nuances of drafting Specific Commercial clauses and potential implications.
- learned about importance of due diligence before any significant changes in agreement.

3, Reflections and learning outcomes

- Today I gained deeper appreciation for the complexity and Strategic importance of drafting Commercial agreements.
- Recognized that effective Commercial drafting requires not only legal acumen but also good understanding of business Principles and Specific Industry involved.
- learned that even seemingly standard clauses need careful consideration and tailoring to the specific context of the Transaction of any business agreements.

Preparing for Court appearances - Drafting Court papers

1, Works Observed and Documents handled

- Today I have observed flurry of activity involved in preparing for next day Court appearances.
- witnessed advocates reviewing Case files Specifically for upcoming hearing, focusing on agenda of that particular date.
- I Reviewed and helped to assemble the set of documents Specifically required for a particular Court hearing.

2, Interactions and Guidance Received

- a) Today one of the Senior Associate shared insights into how they prepare mentally and strategically for Court arguments.
- b) Received guidance on anticipating questions from the judge and being ready with concise answers.
- c) one of Junior advocate have Explained how they assist Seniors in preparing for court, by preparing Judge's Brief.

3, Reflections and Learning outcomes

- Understood that thorough preparation is the key to effective Court advocacy, what appears to be effortless argument in Court Premises is often the result of hours of meticulous preparation.
- appreciated the strategic thinking involved in anticipating the opponents arguments and preparing Rebuttals.
- Realized that Confidence in Court comes from being master of your brief - know the Case facts, the law and documents with you.

Day 20

24

Understanding Case Strategy and legal research preparation.

1. works assigned and legal documents handled

- Today I observed a more in-depth discussion among advocates the overall strategy for a complex ongoing case, this involved analysing the strengths and weaknesses of their own case and that of opponent.
- witnessed how previously conducted legal research was being integrated into case strategy

2. Interactions and Guidance Received

- a) my supervisor discussed with me the importance of developing a coherent case theory early on, which then guides all subsequent actions, including research, drafting and arguments.
- b) Received guidance on how legal research should be targeted and purposeful, directly supporting the chosen case strategy rather than being a general academic exercise.

3. Reflections and Learning Outcomes

- a) Gained a deeper appreciation for the intellectual rigour and foresight involved in developing effective legal strategies.
- b) Understood that Case Strategy is a roadmap to litigation, guiding every decision and action.
- c) Recognised the symbiotic relationship between legal research and Case Strategy - Research informs Strategy, Strategy directs further research.

Day 21

25

Final Day - Consolidated learning and professional ethics

1. Works assigned and legal documents handled

- Today I reflected on the entire 21-day internship period, recalling all the diverse range of activities I observed. Client interactions, drafting sessions, research work, court preparation and law office operations.
- Consolidated the various roles played by different members of legal team and how they collaborated.

2. Interactions and Guidance Received

- Today I summarized the key pieces of advice and guidance received from advocate who supervised me all these internship days and also the legal associates also helped a lot in understanding legal practice.
- Recalled the discussions about career development, the importance of continuous learning, and the demands of legal profession.

3. Reflections and Learning Outcomes

- Consolidated learnings - The internship successfully bridged the gap between theoretical legal education and the practical application of law in these internship days.
- Professional ethics - Reaffirmed the paramount importance of upholding the highest standards of professional ethics & integrity.
- Future outlook - Felt more informed and prepared for my future career in legal profession.

1. My overall Experience

This 21 days internship has been an exceptionally enriching and transforming experience. It provided me a comprehensive immersion into practical realities of the legal profession.

My initial expectation out of this internship was to gain a clearer understanding of the day-to-day functioning of a legal office and to witness the law in action, and this internship has far exceeded those hopes.

From observing client interactions and to participate in drafting and legal research for the cases at hand.

2. Knowledge I gained in this internship

This internship proved to be a significant learning ground, substantially enhancing my legal knowledge across various domains.

Substantive law:- I gained practical insights into application of substantive laws such as Indian Contract act, Code of civil Procedure, and among other recent laws like BNs also.

Procedural law:-

A significant portion of my learning was dedicated to understanding procedural law. I developed clear understanding of many laws.

Documentation and Case law:-

I learned about importance of structured management and drafting of various legal documents in law office.

3, Skills I Developed from this Internship

Beyond theoretical knowledge, this internship was instrumental in honing several critical practical skills essential for me in legal profession.

- a) Legal research
- b) Drafting
- c) client interaction and communication with clients
- d) Analytical and critical thinking
- e) Organizational skills
- f, observational skills
- (g) professionalism and ethics.

4, practical Challenges I encountered

During my 21 days internship I encountered following Practical Challenges.

- (a) initial overwhelm with legal jargon & procedure.
- (b) Understanding complex case files
- (c) Time management in my internship
- (d) Bridging Theory knowledge with practice
- (e) adapting to office environment from college routines.

5. Suggestions for future interns

Based on my 21 days internship experience, I would offer following suggestions to future interns to enhance their learning experience.

- (a) Be proactive and inquisitive.
- (b) maintain a detailed daily diary
- (c) observe meticulously rather than being so active.
- (d) Read case files thoroughly than sitting idle.
- (e) Don't hesitate to ask for clarification.
- (f) Focus on foundation skills of legal profession.
- (g) Be punctual and professional.

6. Contribution to legal education.

This 21 day internship has been an invaluable extension of my formal legal education providing dimensions of learning that classroom alone cannot offer me.

- (a) Contextual understanding of law.
- (b) Development of practical skills
- (c) Understanding professional ethics in action.
- (d) Career clarity and lot of motivation.
- (e) Enhanced later days classroom learning in upcoming law semester of my LLB degree.